STUDENT'S ACHIEVEMENT

DR. LIANG JIN RUI AMOS

Now working at University of Dundee, Scotland. Opened an independent research laboratory within the MRC Protein Phosphorylation and Ubiquitylation Unit (MRC PPU) of the University of Dundee, Scotland in the summer of 2022. Awarded the highly sought after Career Development Fellowship from the Cancer Research UK to fund his research.

"Enrolling in ISM for the A-level program was definitely the right decision for me. The courses that are offered at ISM are internationally recognised and are very well-structured courses. Studying at ISM has definitely laid a strong foundation that prepared me for the challenges faced in my university studies. In addition, the lively and friendly community at ISM will forever be cherished!"

FUNG YING HUI

Now studying at University of Queensland, Australia. Awarded Excellence Scholarship for International Student to study Master of Pharmaceutical Industry Practice. She is also in the list of Dean's Commendation for Academic Excellence.

"Reminiscing the good old days at ISM, I had so much joy studying and involving in various events with my peers. Not only was the Cambridge 'A' Level education we received quality assured, but lecturers were also dedicated and approachable. It was even better with the small lecturer-student ratio that fostered a close relationship. Other than curriculum content, we also discussed about career pathways which laid a good foundation for me to undertake preparation for further education or career."

HIEW WEN TIAN

Now studying at Brickfields Asia College, Malaysia. Offered a full scholarship by Yayasan Tunku Abdul Rahman (YTAR).

"Who you are today does not necessarily define your future. The important thing is whether you are willing to take small but cumulative steps ahead regardless of the difficulties. I thank ISM for providing a platform for me to exercise my leadership skills."

LAU HUI GENG

Now studying at University of Nottingham Malaysia (UNM). Awarded a full scholarship by UNM and Yayasan Tunku Abdul Rahman (YTAR).

"The learning experience at ISM was pivotal to my academic pursuit. With a wobbly foundation when I first joined, thanks to the lecturers' patience and extensive experience, I was able to achieve results that secured me a scholarship."

YEE YUNG SHUEN BRANDON

Now studying at Asia Pacific University (APU), Malaysia. Awarded APU Merit Scholarship that covers 50% of tuition fee.

"ISM is definitely a great place for me to pursue higher education right after my secondary school in my hometown, Tawau."

YIE SONG YING

Now studying at Universiti Tunku Abdul Rahman (UTAR), Malaysia. Awarded UTAR Education Foundation that covers 50% of tuition fee.

"ISM provides high quality education which helps me to learn effectively. The environment is nice, comfortable and conducive for learning. The lecturers are experienced and passionate about teaching."

CHAN JIN KAI

Now studying at University of Exeter, UK. Awarded Exeter Global Excellence Scholarship, a full scholarship from CIMB ASEAN Scholarship to study MEng in Renewable Energy Engineering. She is the winner of Exeter Renewable Energy Awards – Student Most Likely to Change the World.

"The small class size in ISM simply means – they know you, care about you, and help you to succeed."
